MEMORANDUM

TO: THE BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY
FROM: ROBERT T. KENNEY, DIRECTOR
SUBJECT: WATERFRONT PROJECT, MASS. R-77
PARCEL C-2
TENTATIVE DESIGNATION OF AN INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPER
109-111 FULTON STREET

2065
12/16

On July 29, 1971, the Board authorized the advertising of the availability of selective buildings within Parcel C-2 for rehabilitation purposes. Twelve buildings, 105-147 Fulton Street were offered for individual ownership with the resultant response being seventy (70) proposals from interested parties. Preliminary plans were prepared by the staff as a general guideline for submissions. However, upon designation, the individual home owners will be required to engage the services of an architect to prepare the final rehabilitation drawings and to supervise construction.

This proposal represents an opportunity for the creation of a substantial number of badly needed low-moderate income housing units without further expenditure of Authority funds for either land acquisition or site clearance. The disposition parcel consists of approximately 1,000 square feet of land with the building thereon which will be rehabilitated by the individual developer.

It is recommended that the Authority tentatively designate Joseph Sablone, 213 Hanover Street, Boston, as redeveloper of 109-111 Fulton Street.
